

TANANGER – CRUISE IN COMPANY HARBOUR FACT SHEET

Position of the harbour	58°55'57.7"N 5°34'41.5"E
Quay capacity	Length 260m with further capacity for smaller ships
Short description of harbour entry and launch	Tananger harbour is an old tall ships harbour located close to the commercial harbour of Risavika. Even though the North Sea is the nearest neighbour, this is a calm natural harbour, and the home harbour of the pilots.
Depths (harbour entrance and harbour)	Depths harbour entrance 5,7 m Harbour from 3,5m
Tidal differences	+/- 40 cm
Distance from Esbjerg	ca. 256 nautical miles
Distance to Stavanger	ca. 24 nautical miles
Contacts:	Morten E. Hansen (Head of Culture, Sola kommune) – morten.hansen@sola.kommune.no +4799014386 / +4751653361 Kjersti Rui Nygard (Culture Advisor, Sola kommune) – kjersti.rui.nygard@sola.kommune.no +4793030125 / +4751653487
Home page	Sketch details Tananger
Other details	Tananger Coastal Heritage Center includes a great collection of smaller ships. The Sea Scouts of Tananger is one of Norways biggest and a very active organization. A special programme of arrangements will be produced for the Tall Ships Race event for visiting crews and the local community.